

EMSAGE Activities (please note that achieving Laureate status will require accomplishments in a minimum of nine activities that demonstrate balance across each of these categories)

Scholarship

- Enrolled in an Integrated Undergraduate/Graduate degree program (IUG) in the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences
- Enrolled in one or more minors or concurrent majors
- Demonstrated proficiency in foreign language(s)
- Dean's list for 4 or more semesters
- Recipient of a prominent scholarship award (Examples: Bunton-Waller, Udall, Goldwater, NSF, Truman, Rhodes, Marshall, Discovery Grant, etc.)
- Publication in peer-reviewed literature
- Participation in the William Grundy Haven Paper Competition
- Participation in a poster competition
- Undergraduate research

Experiential Learning and Global Literacy

- Participation in International Internship and/or Study Abroad programs
- Participation in Cooperative Education and/or Internship programs
- Participation in a Research Experiences for Undergraduates (REU) program or equivalent
- Participation in CAUSE projects or an academic project with an international travel component
- Participation in extended field studies
- Presentation at a professional forum
- Work experience relevant to your EMS major
- Unique life experiences (Examples: military service, Peace Corps, extensive travel, living abroad, etc.)

Service

- Participation as a teaching assistant
- Participation as a mentor in TOTEMS
- Active participation in professional societies
- Educational outreach (Examples: mentor in SEEMS, ASM Camp, WISE Camp, Campus Weather Service, Weather Camp, school visitations, EMEX, EMS Museum Docent, etc.)
- Participation and service to University organizations or commissions (Examples: EMS Student Council, Interest House, IFC/Panhellenic Council, UPUA, Faculty Senate, FISE, etc.)
- Participation in local, state, or federal government (Examples: Congressional Fellow, voter registration, etc.)
- Civic and volunteer service (Examples: Habitat for Humanity, Food Bank, Big Brother/Sister, Red Cross Blood Drive, Meals on Wheels, etc.)
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity (Examples: World in Conversation discussion facilitator, LGBTQA; Commission on Racial/Ethnic Diversity.)
- Peer mentoring
- Tutoring
- Resident Assistant
- Demonstrated leadership in the organizations of which you are a member